Command Alkon Incorporated Named As Top 500 Software Supplier for 12th Consecutive Year.

Birmingham, AL – November 18, 2008: Command Alkon, a global leader in integrated solutions for the construction materials industry, is pleased to announce its inclusion in Software Magazine's Annual Software 500 for the 12th consecutive year. The Software 500 listing and its detailed financials provide snapshots of the financial health of suppliers: how they fare against competitors, how they spend money, and how they sell to and support customers. Command Alkon Incorporated was ranked number 303.

The Software 500 is a comprehensive look at the software industry targeting enterprise IT organizations with software and services. The list includes both private and public companies. The ranking is based on total worldwide software and service revenue for 2008.

Software Magazine is written for business-savvy information executives whose careers depend on their ability to craft a competitive advantage in the marketplace. Its mission is to help these executives use information technology in order to provide value added services to their customers and business partners by distinguishing their products and services in the marketplace.

Command Alkon Incorporated develops, markets, and supports software and hardware products for the construction materials industry including ready-mix concrete, aggregate, and asphalt producers.
