

EZ-Cal Series

One Hardware Platform Two Software Systems

Command Alkon engineered our proven EZ-Cal batch control hardware to run either our Spectrum or Auto-Control batching software.

So whether you need a batch control for a light duty operation or a batch system that needs to handle every material and ad-mix under the sun, Command Alkon has a solution to fit your needs.

The same reliable, field upgradeable, advanced technology hardware is now at the heart of both control systems. You decide what works best for you.

Command Alkon is a world leader in batching controls. Our family of batching controls have proven reliable and effective in thousands of concrete plants around the world.
